NARRATIVE:

Angela Silva is a documented gang member with an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 20. Her convictions include attempted arson, multiple burglaries, receiving stolen property, driving under the influence of alcohol, false identification, possession of controlled substances, prostitution, petty theft and failing to report. She has served multiple state prison terms the longest being a 32 month sentence for possession of controlled substances. Silva was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on December 17, 2014. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. She subsequently failed to report to her probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in February 2015 after she absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Silva qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because her current commitment offense for burglary is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. Her criminal history, gang member status and current failure to comply with the terms of release make her a most wanted. If you know her whereabouts please contact...
